

how to fix the insert size and deviation for paired-end reads?

When do sequencing, how to fix the insert size and deviation for paired-end reads? If not set, any default value was set? Thanks